

I strongly oppose the Commission's probable approval of allowing media conglomerates to further consolidate media outlets by broadening the types of media they're allowed to own. Diversity of viewpoints will definitely be stifled and public safety may be compromised (as the case in ND demonstrated) when a single corp owns radio, TV, and print media in the same market.